

Louisiana State Civil Service Commissioner

Wilfred Pierre, nominated by Dillard University, is the newest Commissioner, appointed in February 2009. He is a former Louisiana State Representative of the 44th District and owns his own janitorial business.

Pierre attended public schools in Lafayette. He received a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Southwestern Louisiana, with coursework in public administration, political sociology, and city/regional planning.

Pierre served as a state representative from 1992 until January 2007. He served on the Lafayette City Council from 1976 to 1992.

Pierre has served in many organizations, including Alpha Phi Alpha, Lafayette Acadiana Mental Health Board, LA Municipal Association Council of Governments, National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials, Festival Internationale, Lafayette Neighborhood Reinvestment Corp., NAACP, and Knights of Peter Claver.

He and his wife, Carol Ann, reside in Lafayette, Louisiana.